Pond Street and Old Malden Road

Stoneham High School, Built 1871.

It is the Land that remembers —
The tribes —
Agawone and Naamkeek — they lived here then.

The first white settler,
Thomas Gerry,
came to these wild outskirts of Charlestown —
The Land remembers that he killed an Agawone Indian — buried him in his earthen cellar —
The Land holds that moment within her — although the changes came.

First cabins,
then roads —
soon a town and families
The Summer Dust remembers
The Jones family
walking down a shaded road touching a leaf
kicking a stone.
Then came stores —
The cobbler's Ten Footer
whose "beaming knife"
cut the kid's skin,
making shoes . . .
and the town seal.
And then schools —
"I remember the spin of the ball,
a leap — sweating bodies and muscles tense —
The cheers — two points!
Coach Carl Elerin led the basketball team to the 1930 title."

The changes came — will come —
Cheese Rock that once over looked Gould's Saw Mill
is now Bear Hill and over looks
Governor Winthrop's Spot Pond
Dr. Devlin honors the changes of our past
of our future . . .
And this is the old High School —
Remember when it used to be behind
The D.Q.?
Way back in the 1970's?
And all the changes since then . . .
Remember?

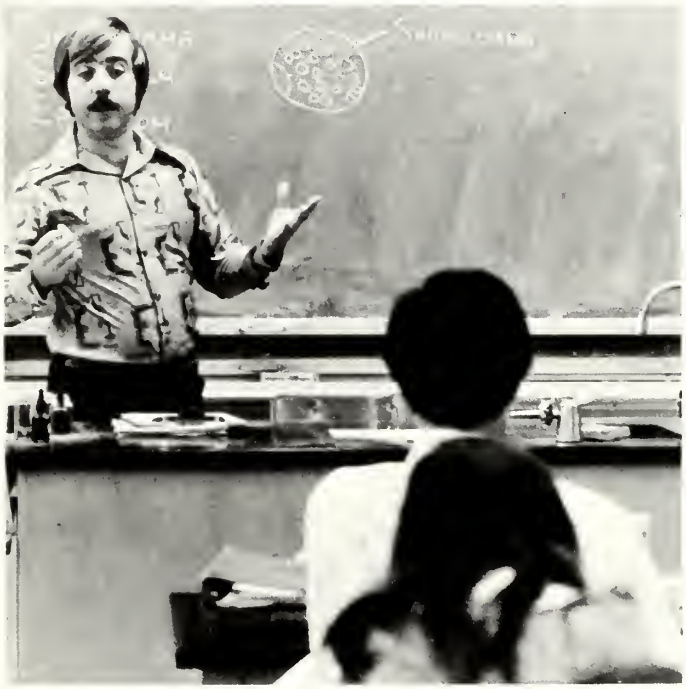
DEDICATION
Mr. Barry P. Jenkins



"But yield who will to their separation,
My object in living is to unite
My avocation and my vocation
As my two eyes make one in sight.
Only where love and need are one,
And the work is play for mortal stakes,
Is the deed ever really done
For Heaven and the future's sakes."
Robert Frost

For athletes, he is their doctor, but for everyone he is an astonishingly helpful teacher who makes it his responsibility to help us understand and love to learn. You could say he teaches us the useful, the practical; the knowledge we need to know. The education that he gives us extends far beyond the classroom into reality, and this is important since this is the classroom in which we must spend the rest of our lives.

It is with deepest admiration and gratitude that we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Jenkins, for he has taught us to live and to learn.

"Fond memory brings the light
Of other days around me;
The smiles, the tears,
Of boyhood years,
The words of love then spoken;
The eyes that shown,
Now dimmed and gone,
The cheerful hearts now broken!"

When I first started teaching in Stoneham High School in 1930 our gym facilities were considered to be the finest in the Middlesex League. Stoneham has always been a hockey town: we only had a championship basketball team once in the years I was coaching, and that was the first year . . . .

Stoneham High School
Thomas Peter Devlin

Seniors

I was born and raised in Stoneham, and I've been practicing medicine for forty-two years now. I remember well my high school principal, Mr. Emerson. He was of tremendous help to me when I was unsure of college. I told him that I was interested in Tufts, so he looked over my record, did a little calculating, and gave me the fifteen points I needed for acceptance. Well, I was accepted by Tufts, got a summer job, and went to school in the fall . . .

MARIA MAYO
"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Every being bears a similarity to another and yet, the thin differentiating line lies in one's beliefs — belief in himself, belief in his purpose in life and belief in his fellow man. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away."

There are places I remember all my life,
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain.

All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall
Some are dead and some are living.
In my life I've loved them all.

SOCCER

The 1975 Stoneham High soccer team achieved the finest record in Stoneham's history — eleven wins, three losses, and three ties. The record was good enough for the Spartans to gain a berth in the State Tournament. The team, under the leadership of Coach Kennedy, bolstered a strong, balanced offense, and a stellar defense. The successful season was due to hard work and determination including participation in a summer soccer league.

KNEELING: left to right: Coach J. Tai, Co-captains R. Kiawtkowski and J. Di Mare, L. Ward, T. Carlino, K. Kelly, M. Giglio, T. Zarba, J. McDonnell, J. Downs, Ball-boys G. Seibold and P. Seibold. STANDING: Head coach M. Kennedy, Scorers S. Burke and L. Russell, P. Movesian, C. Lewis, J. Biggio, R. Gardner, D. Kelly, D. Bamberg, M. Fama, R. Committo, S. Buitkus, P. Howard, T. Rolli, Manager D. Rohanna, V. Pizzotti, S. Minghella, W. Blauvelt, B. Thayer, W. Padovani, R. Angelosanto, coach Pellecchia, Trainer B. Jenkins.

The 1975 football season seemed to be an exact repeat of last year, with the team dropping it's first three games. Two of these games were heartbreaking fourth quarter losses to Wilmington and Belmont. The first win came against Wakefield, a 14-10 victory. The team won most of their remaining games to finish near the top of the Middlesex League. With many starters returning, next season promises to be equally successful.

FIELD HOCKEY

The hardworking field hockey team had a very disappointing season finishing sixth in the league. Offset by such factors as their only goalie having serious knee problems and the obvious lack of numbers, the team never let down during the season even though they were constantly coming up on "the short end of the stick." Lesser teams would not have come into their last game, having a record of three ties and seven losses, with as much spirit as the Stoneham girls exhibited.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Stoneham Varsity Cross Country team had its usual fine season with "one win" and eight losses. The team was lead by Captain Jim "Molasses" Rees, who always finished last.

The Junior Varsity team, on the other hand, had a six and three record and finished fourth in the Middlesex League. They were lead by John "Miniafro" Murphy and Dave "Wacky" Murphy (no relation). The team should be strong next year with eleven underclassmen returning.

The team was also blessed with the presence of three girls: Marie Clabby, Andrea Wiseman, and Charlene Davidson who were the best trio in the Middlesex League.

Clark, G. Proodian, F. Scarpa, M. Maisserian, S. Jamieson, B. Committo, Coach Bill Seabury. Pictured below, Coach Dick Burns.

With a great deal of experienced lettermen returning, Coach Richard Burns and Coach Bill Seabury were very optimistic on having a fine season. This squad was basically the same team, with the exception of a fine line, which played to the semi-final round of the State Tournament the season before. The team was led by a fine nucleus of seniors consisting of Co-captain Dan Brandano, Co-captain Paul White, Jack McDonnell, and Gary Proodian. They also had many talented, hard working, and good spirited underclassmen contributing to the success of the team. The 1975-76 Spartan Hockey Team was made up of a fine group of men, who played together well, and were proud to be a part of Stoneham High.

WINTER TRACK

Stoneham track had a surprising turn out this winter with 35 boys and girls but soon decayed to its usual 18 runners. With the assistance of Coach Rocher and his sidekick Roger Pierce, Stoneham coasted to a fine 0-9-0 record. The most versatile athletes were Jack Fitzgerald who ran the 600, 1000, relay, mile, and also high jumped. Another great high jumper, Bob Mochi, ran the 45 yard dash and relay, while Captain Jim Rees ran the 300, 600, relay, and threw the shotput. Other varsity letter scorers were Joe DiMare, Phil McCallum, Ovidio Vargas, John Murphy, Mark Stuart, Jim Cremins and George Hegarty.

WRESTLING

The 1975-76 season was a disappointing one for the varsity grapplers and their coach, Mr. Mulvihill, as they were forced to forfeit two weight classes all season. In spite of this obstacle, the senior class dominated the starting positions and registered most of the team's points.

Providing leadership and experience were seniors Tony Angelosanto, Tom Rolli, Marshall Daniels, Ralph Chinappi, Bill Dawson, Rick Hegarty, and Tom Quigley, while senior newcomers Gene Rotondi and Jim Carino added strength and depth to the squad.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

It was a disappointing year for the Stoneham Spartan basketball team and their first year coach, Bob Tavanese. They won their season opener easily with a 70-31 victory over East Boston. Three games later, they upset highly ranked Wakefield, 63-60, to move into a tie for second place. The team then lost their next seven straight games, including two heartbreaking last-second losses, and was eliminated from the State Tournament.

Stoneham was led this year by senior co-captains Steve Migliorini, who averaged 17 points and 14 rebounds per game, and Dick Kwiatkowski, the team's play-maker and leading scorer with a 20 point per game average. Seniors Kevin Tighe and Jim Reynolds shared back court time, while Mike Loughman, Dan Bamberg, and Pat Caswell helped out on the boards. Several juniors saw playing time, including Paul Connelly, John Rathbun, Paul Rathbun, and John Carroll. The team also included two promising sophomores, Mike Jutras and Steve Perrone. With half of his team returning, Coach Tavanese looks forward to a promising season next year.

After starting off with three disappointing losses, the girls' basketball team proved that they could put it all together in their first Middlesex League victory over Winchester 38-22, which proved not to be their last victory.

This was Coach Kennedy's first year, and his troops really appreciated his fine coaching abilities along with his patience and understanding that inspired them throughout the season. The seniors will be sad to leave, since they all agree that next year should be even more successful. Remember, it takes time to build a dynasty.

This year's gymnastic team was comprised of devoted, hard working athletes. It was a young spirited team with one senior, eight juniors, and one sophomore. Captain for the team and outstanding on uneven bars was Kristine Denetolis, Co-captains were Nancy Adams and Pattye Smith.

Consistant high scorers for the team were Renée Gullette and Pattye Smith who both averaged between 15-17 points for the team. Nancy Adams who went as an all-around brought in between 16-18 points each meet. Honorable mention goes to Joan Cataldo, Jean Downs, Carla Pallota, Linda Blier, Carol Bosy, Phyllis Moore. The team was coached by Cynthia A. Carbone. Miss Carbone devoted many hours to the team with patience and excellent training. The team is thankful to her for inspiring us to become a winning team.

SEEDS

Hi Folks! My guest tonight is a dear friend, Leo Barbo, born Leonardo Barbo in sunny Italy in 1903. Leo is the oldest of nine children — six boys and three girls. With his family he left Italy at the age of seven, and they arrived in Boston and settled in West Newton. In 1932, he and his brothers founded the Barbo's furniture store which holds a high place among retail and manufacturers of furniture throughout the country, and particularly here in the East and in New England. When the family first came to West Newton, surprisingly enough, they got into the shoe business because Leo's dad was a cobbler. About what age were you then?

I was nine years old — that was 1912.

And then from there, as I understand it, you moved over to another business. You went into the watchmaking business in Waltham. Is that right?

No, what happened to me is that at the ripe old age of fourteen my father said to me that I had had enough schooling and he took me out of school and I went to work on the exact day that I was fourteen years old for the Waltham Watch Company in Waltham. This is during World War I. I worked in the machine shop of the factory — I knew they were making war materials, but what, I had no idea. Since 1918 when the war ended and they fired about 80% of the factory workers, I've no longer been in the watchbusiness.

Well, how did you learn how to make furniture, and where did you learn it?

Well, my brother Charlie and I who were both working for the Waltham Watch Company back in 1918 no longer had a job — we both went out looking for work and after searching we found a factory that was manufacturing furniture in Waltham. I started with that factory when I was a boy, and I finally worked myself up to superintendent. Then, in 1932, because of the depression, that factory closed its doors and that was when I started on my own.

You and your brothers came to Stoneham then — what attracted you to the town?

Well, what happened, Nick, is Dick Barnstead was one of the first fellows I met in the town of Stoneham. Through the newspaper he was advertising for the town for Stoneham's industry.

Well, now Leo, I have a picture here of an old trolley car coming from Sullivan Square to Barbo's and this was only four years after you were established. Why don't you just briefly tell us about this — particularly the streetcar.

Well, I do remember some of our help coming in from Cambridge and some of it coming in from Woburn coming on these trolley cars which today we're commencing to remember how good they were — we were glad to get rid of them at the time, but now we wish we had them back.

That's right, and as a matter of fact, this house here that's no longer standing was a stop in the Underground Railroad where the slaves from the South were hidden.

Let's go to another picture. The groundbreaking — this was in 1946. This shows Richard Bridge, the architect, with you Leo and John and Charlie. We could go on and on with these pictures but here's one that I think the people would be interested in . . . that shows your dad and your mother and this was taken in 1947 and it says soon after the store was opened.

I believe that some of the people that you see there — Lieutenant Governor Arthur Coolidge and the Mayor of the city of Newton. This is another picture showing the opening day and the crowd that was in front of the store at the time. That was September 11, 1947. This is another picture that I think you will find interesting, Nick. Television was in its infancy at the time and of course we wanted to get involved with television and sure enough there was the Wolcott-Lewis fight and we advertised it, and we had to close Main Street for people to see the fight going on from the window.

I remember well. Well, along with all of the work you did in establishing this fine business Leo, you put a lot of effort into community affairs and in civic affairs, and you have gained prominence for yourself and your family and for the community because of many things you've done. How did you find time to do all that you did?

That's when I was full of vim and vigor, Nick.

You still are though.

Well, I don't know. I've slowed down a heck of a lot since.

I don't think so. But now Leo you have a picture here that interests me, and there is quite a story about this picture that bears retelling. And I think it would be good if you told it in your own words. But let me just outline briefly what is involved here. As I understand it, back in 1955 you and Joe Pellegrino, the owner of Prince Spaghetti, were quite friendly (and still are.) He's still living too, and he more or less, like yourself, is retired from an active business role. But, way back then you told me something about this picture — do you want to tell us what happened? I notice on the wording on the mouth of the pitcher it reads "Leave out the word . . .

Nick, if I may interrupt you. What happened there was that in the early part of 1956 Mr. Pellegrino asked us (meaning my brothers and I) if we would be interested in buying some of these pictures that he was giving away as a premium because of his sales of spaghetti. He thought it would make quite an addition and quite a nice item for our gift shop. He knew that we were contemplating opening one and he thought that this would be a good addition to it. So he told us that it was possible for us to get the pitchers made because they were made exclusively for him in Italy. These are all made by hand, incidentally. And it was also possible that all this writing that exists here on the front and back could have been left out. So he actually gave us the idea that we should order some and we took his advice and we ordered something like 1500 of them. What he did was he sent a cablegram to Italy to the people who made these and in the cablegram he wrote, "Leave out the word salute . . ." (that was on the mouth of the pitcher).

But they took it literally and thought that was what they should inscribe.

Right, Mr. Pellegrino was very upset over the mistakes on the pitchers, so we met the next day to decide what to do with them. We decided on advertising these pitchers as what would soon be a collector's item. We would then sell them and donate the money to the Easter Seal Foundation for crippled children.

You turned what seemed to be a catastrophe into a very pleasant event . . .

Best Wishes and Good Luck

Benjamin Moore paints

The play is done; the curtain drops,
Slow falling to the prompter's bell:
A moment yet the actor stops,
And looks around, to say farewell.
